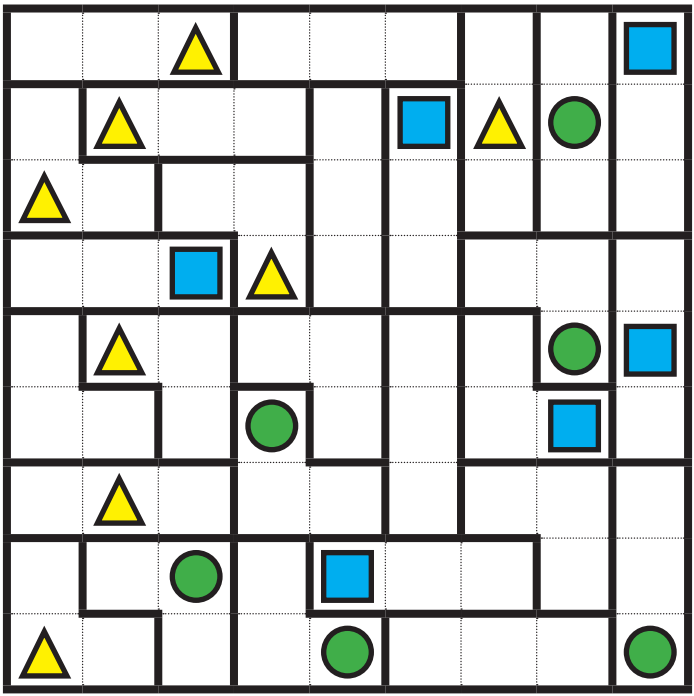
ALL OR ONE


Place a circle, triangle or square in each cell. Regions of three cells, indicated by the thick lines, contain either three same symbols or three different symbols. Symbols in adjacent cells in different regions are different.